MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

FROM: George V. Lauder
Director, Public Affairs Office

SUBJECT: American Bar Association Breakfast

1. American Bar Association Breakfast Meeting: Tuesday, 30 April, 8:00 a.m., 1135 16th Street, Washington, D.C. (phone 862-8800).
CONTACT: Mary Lee (543-5445).

2. Your Role in the Meeting: The American Bar Association (ABA) breakfast will have as its final speaker at its spring breakfast series, Frank Rockwell Barnett, President of the National Strategy Information Center (NSIC) and Educational Consultant to the ABA Committee on Communism. You will be introducing Mr. Barnett who will speak on "Plus Ca Change, . . ." Reflections on Anniversaries, Detentes and the Leninist Legacy." The title of his address stems from the original name of the ABA committee -- Committee on Education About Communism and Its Contrast With Liberty Under Law.

You can expect an audience of approximately 90 people including members of the NSIC Board, lawyers, judges, staffers from the Senate Intelligence Committee, Foreign Relations Committee, and representatives from the Departments of Justice and Defense. According to their program director, ABA does not know of either media representatives or foreign nationals attending.

3. Arrangements and Head Table Seating: Chairman of the National Strategic Materials and Minerals Program Advisory Committee Admiral William C. Mott will meet you at the main entrance of the University Club and escort you to the meeting on the second floor. A buffet breakfast will be served from 8:00 to 8:25 a.m. After all stand and introduce themselves, either Admiral Mott or University of Virginia Law Professor John Norton Moore will introduce you at 8:25 a.m. You will introduce Mr. Barnett at 8:30 a.m., and he will speak from 8:35 to 9:00 a.m., take questions and answers at 9:00 a.m., and adjourn the meeting at 9:30 a.m. (See opposite for agenda.) A podium and microphone will be in the near proximity of your table. Your remarks and those of Mr. Barnett's will be taped for the ABA's intelligence Report and Mr. Barnett's records. Those who will be seated at the table with you include:
